After some arguments, the learned counsel for the parties state upon instructions that the matter can be disposed off in the following terms: The appellant has acknowledged a debt of Rs.60,000/-, in terms of the Panchayat Agreement, and she is ready and willing to pay the same to the respondent, towards settlement of all disputes between them. However, since the case has carried on for a number of years, the appellant is ready and willing to pay an amount of Rs.10,000/- as litigation expenses. The proposal is accepted by the respondent. Accordingly, she shall pay an amount of Rs.70,000/- to the respondent in two equal instalments of Rs.35,000/- each. The first amount shall be paid on or before 7th March, 2018 into the bank account of the respondent Harpal Singh being Account No. 00000001031683696, Central Bank of India. The second instalment of the like amount shall be paid into the said bank account on or before 7th April, 2018.

Any infraction of this order either in terms of quantum or the time, shall automatically be visited with cost of Rs.5,000/- to be paid into the said bank account within two weeks of such default.

The learned counsel for the appellants states upon instructions from the appellants who are present in the Court, that they undertake to abide by the aforesaid terms. The undertaking is taken on record. The appellants shall file an undertaking in terms of the aforesaid settlement in this regard.

The learned counsel for the respondents states that in view of the above, Warrants of Attachment issued against the appellants' property will be kept on hold till the time such amounts are paid in terms of today's order.

The learned counsel for the respondent states that the respondent shall maintain a respectable distance from the appellants and their residence.

The appeal is disposed off in the above terms.
