% ORDER
12.04.2018

The status report of the GNCTD indicates that the appellant's child is in a play school. The appellant's father is 70 years old and his wife is a homemaker. The appellant wishes to have the child admitted to the regular school.

Learned Standing Counsel submitted that the appellant was granted furlough for about two weeks in November-December 2017 and subsequently granted parole for a week in January 2017. The appellant has undergone 9 years 9 months of sentence, including the remission granted to him under the Jail Manual.

Having regard to these circumstances – since there is no denial that the appellant's child needs to be admitted to regular school, he shall be admitted to parole for a week on his executing personal bond in the sum of ₹25,000/- with a surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the concerned Jail Superintendent. The appeal is allowed in the above terms.

Order dasti.
