BAIL APPLN. 692/2018

1. The petitioner seeks interim protection in case FIR No.159/2018 registered under Sections 306/34 IPC At PS Chandani Bagh, Distt. Panipat (Haryana).

2. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and have examined the file. The petitioner was married to complainant Deepak Kadiyan on 01.02.2017. Due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner had returned to her matrimonial home at Delhi from Sonipat and was residing with her parents.

3. Allegations in the FIR are that the petitioner's father-in-law

Ram Mehar Kadiyan committed suicide due to alleged harassment caused by petitioner and her family members.

4. The petitioner's only prayer is to grant interim protection to enable her to approach the competent Court at Panipat to seek anticipatory bail in the said FIR.

5. Learned Deputy AG for State of Haryana has no objection if interim protection is granted for short duration as there is distance of only around 90 k.m. between Delhi and Panipat and the said Court can be approached within two days.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and to enable the petitioner to approach the competent Court at Panipat to seek appropriate relief in the said FIR, she is granted interim protection for four days from today. The petitioner shall not be arrested in the above FIR during these four days.

7. The petitioner may approach the Court concerned during this period and on expiry of four days from today, the interim protection to the petitioner shall come to an end.

8. Observations recorded by the learned Trial Court in the impugned order dated 20.03.2018 shall have no impact on merits of the case.

9. The bail application stands disposed of.
