

$~37

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+ Crl. M.A. No.11989/2018 & W.P.(CRL) 1008/2018

SANJAY JHA Petitioner

Through: Mr. Sanjay Baniwal for Mr. Kamlesh
Kumar Mishra, Advocate.

Versus

UNION OF INDIA & ORS. Respondents

Through: Ms. Nandita Rao, Additional Standing
Counsel with Inspector A. Khan, P.S.
Jaitpur.
Mr. Amit Mahajan, CGSC for UOI.
Mr. Mukesh Gupta, Standing Counsel and
Ms. Shashi Gupta, Advocate for SDMC.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE NAJMI WAZIRI

ORDER

% 05.07.2018

It is the petitioner's case that certain vital aspects of the alleged crime have not been duly investigated or looked into by the Delhi Police and that he has made a number of representations to the Delhi Police; that a comprehensive representation dated 25.06.2018 was addressed to the Commissioner of Police.

Ms. Nandita Rao, the learned Additional Standing Counsel for the State submits that the aforesaid representation is under investigation. She assures the Court that since the case concerns a young child studying in class IV, every possible aspect of the case will be looked into minutely as the State is bound to. She submits that the security and safety of the citizens is the paramount duty of the State and that the police force would leave no stone unturned in this regard. She further states that should the petitioner have any grievance after the investigation, it would be open for him to take recourse to legal remedies.

4.

In view of the above, the learned counsel for the petitioner does not seek any further orders at this stage.

Accordingly, the petition, alongwith pending application, stands disposed- off.

NAJMI WAZIRI, J.

JULY 05, 2018

sb