ORDER
% 17.04.2018

Vide the present petition, the petitioner Jagdeep Singh seeks quashing of the FIR No. 426/16, registered at PS Hari Nagar, under Section 323/341/506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 which on a perusal of the submissions made in FIR is indicated to be under Section 506 Part-I of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 all of which offences are compoundable.

The Investigating Officer of the case has identified the petitioner as being the accused of the FIR in question and has also identified the respondent no. 2 as being the complainant thereof.

The respondent no.2 in his examination on oath by the Court has testified to having sworn his affidavit annexed to the petition as Ex.CW2/A and has testified that the matter has been settled between him and the respondent no. 2 and submits that he does not oppose the prayer made by the petitioner seeking quashing of the FIR No. 426/16, registered at PS Hari Nagar, under Section 323/341/506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 nor does he want the petitioner to be punished in relation thereto.

Learned APP for the State submits that in the circumstances of the case, there is no opposition to the prayer made by the petitioner seeking quashing of the FIR in question in view of the settlement arrived at between the parties.

Taking into the account of the settlement arrived at between the parties and the factum that the offences punishable under Sections 323/341/506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 are compoundable with the permission of the Court. It is considered appropriate to allow the prayer made by the petitioner seeking quashing of FIR No. 426/16, registered at PS Hari Nagar, under Section 323/341/506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 and all the consequential proceedings emanating therefrom against the petitioner. In view thereof the FIR No. 426/16, registered at PS Hari Nagar, under Section 323/341/506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 and all the consequential proceedings emanating therefrom against the petitioner Jagdeep Singh are quashed.

The petition is disposed of.
