1. The instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed on behalf of the petitioner seeking parole for a period of three months. Status report is on record.

2. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and have examined the file.

3. Nominal Roll dated 16.05.2018 reveals that the petitioner was convicted under Section 365/366/376 IPC and was sentenced to undergo various prison terms maximum being rigorous imprisonment for ten years with total fine ₹40,000/-. Nominal roll further reveals that the petitioner has already undergone four years, three month and twenty three days incarceration besides remission for seven months and fifteen days as on 16.05.2018. The petitioner is not a previous convict. His overall jail conduct is satisfactory. Earlier he was granted parole w.e.f.19.07.2017 to 10.08.2017 and there are no allegations of its misuse.

4. Considering the facts and circumstances and for reasons mentioned in the application, the petitioner is granted three weeks parole from the date of his release, on his furnishing personal bond in the sum of ₹25,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Trial Court. After completion of parole period, the petitioner shall surrender before the Jail Superintendent.

5. Writ petition stands disposed of in the above terms.
