% 24.05.2018

Counsel for the respondents states that default assessment orders of tax and interest under Section 32 of the Delhi Value Added Tax Act, 2004 have been passed. Counsel for the petitioner submits that the said orders are contrary to law and in fact even proper opportunity was not provided. It is open to the petitioner to challenge the default assessment orders in accordance with law. We clarify that in case objections are preferred within a period of fifteen days, the same would be entertained and disposed of expeditiously.

Recording the aforesaid, the writ petitions are disposed of, without commenting on merits. No costs.
