1. The instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed on behalf of the petitioner for seeking furlough. Status report is on record. Address of the petitioner has been verified.

2. Nominal Roll dated 18.05.2018 reveals that the petitioner was convicted under Sections 363/368/372/373/376/109/506/174A IPC and Sections 3/4/5/6 ITP Act and was sentenced to undergo RI for ten years with fine ₹20,000/-. Her appeal was dismissed by this Court on 01.06.2016. Nominal Roll further reveals that the petitioner has already undergone five years, three months and fourteen days incarceration besides remission for one year, one month and nineteen days as on 27.04.2018. It further reveals that she is not involved in any other criminal case and is not a previous convict. Her overall jail conduct is satisfactory. Earlier she was granted interim bail and there are no allegations of its misuse. After 2015, she has not availed any furlough.

3. In the interest of justice and for the reasons mentioned in the writ petition, the petitioner is granted three weeks furlough from the date of her release, on her furnishing personal bond in the sum of ₹40,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Trial Court. After completion of furlough period, the petitioner shall surrender before the Jail Superintendent.

4. Writ petition stands disposed of in the above terms.
