ORDER
% 30.07.2018

After some hearing, it having been pointed out by the counsel for the respondent (complainant of the case from which the present petition arises) that the complaint case under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 has since been transferred by the Metropolitan Magistrate in Delhi to his counterpart judicial Magistrate in District Sonapat in the State of Haryana by an order subsequent to the one impugned in these proceedings, the learned senior counsel for the petitioner submitted that he may be permitted to withdraw the present petition he seeking liberty to approach the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh by petition under Section 227 of the Constitution of India and Section 482 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 to challenge the maintainability of the complaint case against the petitioner on the grounds set out in the petition at hand.

The petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed for granted. The trial court record shall be returned forthwith.
