CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJEEV SACHDEVA

ORDER

% 27.04.2018

1. Petitioners seek quashing of an FIR 74 of 2014 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC, Police Station-Welcome based on the settlement.
2. It is contended that petitioner No.1 is the husband of the respondent No.2. The petitioner Nos.2 and 3 are the father-in-law and mother-in-law of respondent No.2. The subject FIR was lodged consequent to a matrimonial discord.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submit that the parties have resolved their disputes and are amicably residing together as husband and wife since August 2014.
4. The respondent No.2 is present in person and is identified by the Investigating Officer. She submits that she has amicably resolved the disputes with her husband and they are now cohabiting together. She submits that she does not wish to press charges against the petitioners and has no objection to the quashing of the subject FIR.

5. In view of the fact that the proceedings emanate out of a matrimonial discord and the parties have fully and finally settled their disputes and have started living together and further the respondent No.2 has stated that she does not wish to press the complaint any further, continuation of criminal proceedings will be an exercise in futility and justice in the case demands that the dispute between the parties is put to an end and peace is restored; securing the ends of justice being the ultimate guiding factor. It would be expedient to quash the subject FIR and the consequent proceedings emanating therefrom.

6. In view of the above, FIR No.76/2014, under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC, Police Station Welcome and the consequent proceedings emanating there from are quashed.

7. Order Dasti under the signatures of the Court Master.
