ORDER

25.10.2018

1. These petitions were passed over as none had appeared on behalf of the petitioners. None appears for the petitioners on the second round as well. It is noticed that none had appeared for the petitioners on the previous hearing (held on 22.10.2018) as well.
2. The learned counsel appearing for the respondents further states that the petitions have become infructuous as the amounts have already been disbursed.
3. The petitions are dismissed in view of the statement made by the learned counsel appearing for the respondents as well as in default.
4. The pending applications are also disposed of.
