1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that no offence under Section 307 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 ('IPC') is made out against the petitioner in view of the material on record. The police has made a false case against the petitioner since there is no scratch on the car which proves that the car did not hit the barricade. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submitted that the petitioner has also not fired the shot as alleged in the charge-sheet.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submitted that in other cases, the petitioner is acquitted and only this case is pending against the petitioner.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner, at this stage, submitted that he may be allowed to withdraw the present revision petition without prejudice to the rights, contentions and defence of the petitioner.

Accordingly, the present revision petition is dismissed as withdrawn without prejudice to the rights, contentions and defence of the petitioner. Crl.M.A. 8463/2018 is also dismissed as withdrawn.

4. It is made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as on the merits of the present revision petition.
