This Court on 27.10.2017 had passed an order admitting the petition and appointing the Official Liquidator as a Provisional Liquidator. The petitioner was also directed to pay the sum of Rs. 20,000/- to the OL towards the cost of publication.

The petitioner has failed to pay the said sum. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he has no instruction from the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the OL submits that a perusal of the record with the ROC shows that there is no filing of the balance sheet till 2012. It also appears that there is no assets of the company. Further, the name of the company has also been struck off.

Keeping in view of the above the petition is dismissed in default. The order appointing the OL as provisional liquidator dated 27.10.2017 is recalled.
