

2
$-4 & 5 (common order)

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+ BAIL APPLN. 1066/2018 and Crl.M.A.8746/2018

KESHAV KUMAR

..... Petitioner

Through: Mr. M.C. Kashyap, Advocate

versus

STATE

..... Respondent

Through: Mr. Ashish Dutta, APP for the State.
SI Ashwani, PS Chanakya Puri

+ BAIL APPLN. 1072/2018 and Crl.M.A.8771/2018

AJAY KUMAR

..... Petitioner

Through: Mr. M.C. Kashyap, Advocate

versus

STATE

..... Respondent

Through: Mr. Ashish Dutta, APP for the State.
SI Ashwani, PS Chanakya Puri

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE R.K.GAUBA

ORDER

%

11.07.2018

On the basis of evidence collected during investigation into case FIR No.58/2017 involving offences punishable under Sections 395/397/365/34/412/420/468/471/120-B IPC of Police Station Chanakya Puri, petitioners were arrested and sent up for trial with co-accused. The trial of the case is presently underway in the court of Sessions, charge having been found made out, the said order having been attained finality

BAIL APPLN. 1066/2018 etc.

Page 1 of 2

Signature Not Verified

Signing Date:07.10.2024 17:02:15
Certify that the digital and physical file have been compared and the digital data is as per the physical file and no page is missing.

3

there being no challenge thereto by the petitioners. The case is at the stage of the prosecution evidence, particularly the statement of the victim.

The allegations against the petitioners primarily are that they had aided and assisted the other accused in waylaying the victim, who was moving with goods in a transport vehicle and having incapacitated him by throwing chilli powder into his eyes, fire arm also having been used in the crime. No case is made out in these circumstances for release on bail at this stage.

Both the bail petitions stand dismissed.

This disposed of pending applications also.

R.K. GAUBA, J.

JULY 11, 2018

vk