1. Present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed by the petitioners for quashing of FIR No.239/2017 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC registered at Police Station Rani Bagh. It is stated that the matter has been settled amicably with the complainant/respondent No.2 before Mediation Centre, Rohini District Courts vide settlement agreement dated 05.02.2018.

2. Complainant / respondent No.2 is present with counsel and has been identified by the Investigating Officer. I have enquired from the complainant if she has settled the dispute with the petitioners amicably without any fear or pressure. She has informed that all the disputes between the parties have been resolved amicably with her free consent and she has no objection to the quashing of the FIR in question. Marriage between the parties has been dissolved. Pursuant to the settlement, remaining amount of ₹5,00,000/- by way of demand draft bearing No.141194 dated 17.05.2017 drawn on Bank of Maharashtra in the name of the complainant has been given to her today in the Court.

Since the dispute between the parties has been settled, no useful purpose will be served to continue with the proceedings. In the interest of justice and to enable the parties to settle in life after dissolution of marriage, FIR No.239/2017 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC registered at Police Station Rani Bagh and all the proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.
