1. The instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed on behalf of the petitioner for seeking parole for a period of two months. Status report is on record.

2. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and have examined the file.

3. Nominal Roll dated 16.05.2017 reveals that the petitioner was convicted under Sections 302/201 PC and was sentenced to undergo imprisonment for life. Crl.A.297/2015 was dismissed by this Court on 27.01.2018. It further records that the petitioner has already undergone five years, one month and twenty days incarceration besides remission for one year, two months and ten days as on 16.05.2018. He is not a previous convict and is not involved in any other case. His overall conduct in jail is satisfactory. He has not availed any parole or furlough during the detention period.

4. In the interest of justice and for the reasons mentioned in the application, the petitioner is granted three weeks parole from the date of his release, on his furnishing personal bond in the sum of ₹30,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Trial Court. After completion of parole period, the petitioner shall surrender before the Jail Superintendent.

5. Writ petition stands disposed of in the above terms.
