Crl.M.A. No. 12104/2018

1. By this application, the petitioners seek permission to leave Delhi for two days to perform the last rites at Ludhiana. While this Court disposed of the bail application which was listed on mentioning on 1st July, 2018, no such prayer was made.
2. This Court granted bail to the petitioner for the reason that Anoop Singh Bagga who died was not married and the petitioners were the only persons who could perform the last rites, despite the fact that there were allegations of absconding against the petitioners and they had already been declared proclaimed offenders, thus, this Court finds no ground to allow the prayer in the present application.
3. Application is dismissed.
