Status report filed.

Heard.

Learned Additional Public Prosecutor fairly concedes that in the FIR, the petitioner who was the member of extended family though shown present in the initial stage of the incident had left the scene midway. In these circumstances, on parity with co-accused Veermati and others who have been granted the reliefs of anticipatory bail by order dated 30.07.2018 on their Bail Application 1764/2018, the petitioner deserves protection.

In view of the above, it is directed that in the event of he being arrested, he shall be released on bail by the arresting officer on furnishing personal bonds in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety in the like amount subject to the following further conditions:

- (i) The petitioner shall continue cooperating with the investigation and join the same as and when called upon to do so;
- (ii) The petitioner shall not come in contact with or try to influence any of the witnesses connected to the case;
- (iii) Prior to his release, he shall give the telephone numbers of self and of at least one other responsible family member besides that of the surety to the investigating officer; and
- (iv) He shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence.

This order will inure only till the date of first appearance of the petitioner in the event of a charge-sheet being filed on conclusion of the investigation and process being issued against him by the court of cognizance.

The petition stands disposed of in above terms.
