By the present petition, petitioners seek quashing of FIR No. 689/2014 under Sections 406/420/467/468/471/506 IPC registered at PS Najafgarh, Delhi on the complaint of respondent No.2 and the proceedings pursuant thereto on the ground that the parties have settled the matter.

Learned proxy counsel for learned Standing Counsel for the State on instructions from Investigating Officer submits that in the above-noted FIR the three petitioners, who are the brother in law, wife of brother in law and sister in law of respondent No.2, as impleaded by the amended memo parties are the only accused and the respondent No. 2 the only complainant/victim.

Respondent No. 2 is present in Court and is identified by the learned counsel and the Investigating Officer. She states that she has settled the matter with the petitioners before the Delhi Mediation and Conciliation Centre on 18th December, 2017, copy whereof is annexed as Annexure-B to the present petition. In the terms of settlement arrived at between the parties she does not wish to pursue the above-noted FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto and will abide by the terms of settlement arrived at between the parties.

The petitioners who are present in Court and are identified by the learned counsel affirm the statement of respondent No.2 and undertake to abide by the terms of the settlement arrived at between the parties.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, volition and without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

Consequently, FIR No. 689/2014 under Sections 406/420/467/468/471/506 IPC registered at PS Najafgarh, Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed.

Parties have signed this order sheet in acknowledgment of their statements made before this Court.
