petitioner-Chitwan Malhotra. On 20th June, 2018 complainant along with her friends came at the Institute and picked up a quarrel and assaulted Chitwan Malhotra resulting fracture in her leg. Chitwan Malhtora filed a complaint with SHO of police station Hauz Khas against the complainant but no action was taken. Again on 20th June, 2018 complainant came at the Institute with her friends and created ruckus. She also scuffled with Chitwan Malhotra and her husband petitioner-Dr. Praveen Singh and also with other staff members. In the process, complainant herself sustained injuries. She has falsely implicated the petitioners by lodging the present FIR alleging therein that Chitwan Malhtora beat her up while her husband-Dr. Praveen Singh gave an elbow blow on her nose. Petitioners have already participated in the investigation, therefore, they may be extended benefit of anticipatory bail.

Learned APP concedes the fact that petitioners have joined and participated in the investigation. Petitioners were granted interim protection vide order dated 20th July, 2018, which is still in force.

Keeping in mind totality of the facts and circumstances of this case, it is ordered that in case of arrest, petitioners be released on bail subject to their furnishing a personal bond in the sum of ₹10,000/- each with one surety each in the like amount to the satisfaction of Arresting Officer/Investigating Officer/SHO of the concerned police station.

Both the bail applications are disposed of in the above terms.
