25.07.2018

The life of a young girl of 21 years of age was extinguished in unnatural circumstances within 17 months of her marriage. According to the FIR, she had hung herself. Her father, the complainant, has alleged that she used to be often beaten up by her drunkard husband - the petitioner and a demand of dowry was made as well.

The Court finds no reason to grant bail. The petition is dismissed.
