ORDER

% 24.09.2018

At the outset, Mr. Bhandari, the learned Special Public Prosecutor for CBI, states that the CBI has no role in the case and that the investigation of the case has been entrusted to the Economic Offences Wing vide order dated 13.09.2017.

The learned counsel for the State too submits that the petition is not maintainable in the first instance because the petitioners have an equally efficacious alternative remedy available to them.

The petitioners are aggrieved by what they state to be an unfair investigation in the case bearing FIR No. 13/2017 registered under sections 420/406/409/ 120B IPC and RC No.219/2017 E0002 under sections

120B/420/471 IPC r/w sections 13(2) and 13(1)(d) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, at Police Station Economic Offences Wing, New Delhi. The petition shall be treated as a representation to the police and appropriate action shall be taken thereupon. The petitioners shall be informed of the action taken, within six weeks from today.

At this stage, the learned counsel for the petitioners submits that she has been threatened over telephone calls, originating outside of India and that her representation to the police has yielded no result.

Ms. Vohra, the learned counsel for the State, assures the Court that the matter will be looked into and appropriate action, as may be, would be taken, with intimation to the counsel for the petitioners. She further submits that since the last order, two persons, namely, Rajesh Khanna and Giri Raj Singh Rahal have been arrested on 17th and 18th of July, 2018 respectively and that the investigation is underway. She submits, upon instructions, that investigations are likely to be concluded shortly and she expects compliance of the statutory provisions as stipulated. Let the needful be done.

Should the petitioners have any grievance, it will be open to them to seek legal remedies, as available in law.

The petitions, alongwith pending applications, stand disposed-off in the above terms.

A copy of this order be given dasti to the learned counsel for the parties under signature of the Court Master.
