the respondent No.3 is the only complainant/ victim.

Respondent No. 3 who is present in Court and is identified by the Investigating Officer states that he has settled the matter with the petitioner vide the compromise deed dated 13th August, 2016, copy whereof is annexed as Annexure-B of the paper book. In terms of the settlement the respondent No. 3 has already received a total sum of ₹12 lakhs and he has now no claim whatsoever remaining against the petitioner. In terms of the settlement he does not want to pursue the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. He further undertakes to abide by the terms of settlement arrived at between the parties.

Petitioner who is present in Court and is identified by the learned counsel affirm the statement of respondent No.3 and undertakes to abide by the terms of settlement arrived at between the parties.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, volition and without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

Consequently, FIR No. 113/2016 under Sections 419/420 IPC registered at PS Chankya Puri, Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed.

Parties have signed this order sheet in acknowledgment of their statements made before this Court.

Petition is disposed of.
