ORDER

% 31.10.2018

The petitioner seeks parole to take care of his aged mother, to maintain social ties and relations and to curb his inner stress and depression due to incarceration. His request to the government was rejected on the ground that his conduct in jail was unsatisfactory and also of his arrest in another case while he was out on parole in January, 2018. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that his arrest was not in respect to any specific offence but merely as a security measure for keeping peace. No charges have been framed against him in the case nor has he been intimated about any such measures apropos the said arrest. His conduct in jail is otherwise satisfactory. He has been incarcerated for more than five years seven months and four days as of 08.08.2018. He has earlier been granted parole twice. His address has been verified.

In view of the above, the petitioner is granted parole for a period of six weeks from the date of his release on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the Jail Superintendent concerned subject to the following conditions:-

- (1) The petitioner shall report to the concerned SHO once a week during the period of parole.
- (2) He shall furnish his telephone number to the concerned Police Station, which the petitioner shall keep operational at all times
- (3) He shall not leave the territory of NCT of Delhi.
- (4) The petitioner shall surrender before the jail authorities at the expiry of the period of parole.

With the above directions the writ petition is disposed off. The order be communicated to the concerned Jail Superintendent.

A copy of this order be given dasti to the learned counsel for the parties.
