CRL.M.A. 30518/2018

Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.

BAIL APPLN. 1974/2018

The petitioner had been granted interim protection against arrest by the court of Sessions while considering his application for bail (no. 2334/2018). Concededly, he did join investigation on some of the dates when he was called by the investigating officer. On 13.08.2018, however, the court of Sessions was informed that the petitioner had not been cooperating as he had not disclosed about the weapon of offence which required to be recovered. In the FIR, the weapon of offence is generally described as some sharp object.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and upon perusal of the interrogation report, the petitioner deserves protection.

Thus, it is directed that in the event of the petitioner being arrested, he shall be released on bail by the arresting officer on furnishing personal bond in the sum of Rs10,000/- with one surety in the like amount subject to the following further conditions:-

- (i) The petitioner shall continue cooperating with the investigation and join the same as and when called upon to do so;
- (ii) The petitioner shall not come in contact with or try to influence any of the witnesses connected to the case;
- (iii) Prior to his release, he shall give the telephone numbers of self and of at least one other responsible family member besides that of the surety to the investigating officer;
- (iv) He shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;
- (v) He shall not leave India without the prior permission of the court of cognizance or the trial court, as the case may be, and to ensure due compliance with this condition and shall deposit his passport, if he holds one, with the said court.

This order will inure only till the date of first appearance of the petitioner in the event of a charge-sheet being filed on conclusion of the investigation and process being issued against him by the court of cognizance.

The petition stands disposed of in above terms.
