Learned proxy counsel for the learned Additional Standing Counsel for the State on instructions from Investigating Officer submits that in the above-noted FIR the four petitioners are the only accused, the respondent No. 2 the complainant/victim and the respondent No.3 the other victim.

Respondent Nos. 2 and 3 are present in Court and are identified by the learned counsel and the Investigating Officer. They state that they have settled the matter with the petitioners vide Compromise Deed dated 23rd July, 2018, copy whereof is annexed as Annexure-C to the present petition as the petitioners are their neighbours and also assured that they will not misbehave in future. In terms of the settlement they do not wish to pursue the above-noted FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

The petitioners who are present in Court and are identified by the learned counsel affirm the statement of respondent Nos.2 and 3 and undertake to abide by the terms of the settlement arrived at between the parties. Petitioners also ensure that they will not indulge in any misbehaviour in future and to show remorse they undertake to deposit some costs also.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, volition and without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.
