During the course of hearing petitioner, who is present in the Court, has offered to pay ₹7,50,000/- to respondent no.2 towards full and final settlement of all his claims in respect of cheque in question. Respondent no.2, who is also present in Court, accepts this offer. He has no objection in case offence under section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 is permitted to be compounded.

In view of the settlement arrived at between the petitioner and respondent no.2, offence under section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 is compounded. Petitioner is acquitted.

Registry is directed to release ₹7,50,000/- to respondent no.2 out of the amount lying deposited in this Court. The remaining amount along with interest accrued on the deposits be released to petitioner.

Petition is disposed of in above terms.
