The petitioner who appears in person states that she has already filed a protest petition to the closure report filed by the police. Since the learned Trial Court is now ceased of the matter and the FSL report has already been received, no further orders are required to be passed by this Court except granting leave to the petitioner that in case she is aggrieved by the order of learned Metropolitan Magistrate, accepting the cancellation report, she would at liberty to take remedies as available in law.

Petition is disposed of accordingly.
