26.09.2018

The counsel appearing for the petitioners seeks permission to withdraw the present petition submitting that the matter involving dispute with some other parties, who are also involved in the case, is yet to be resolved though efforts are still underway and, therefore, also requests for liberty to be granted to file fresh petition for quashing of FIR in question, after such settlement has been arrived at.

The petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed for, granted.
