ORDER

% 12.10.2018

We have heard learned counsel for the parties and also examined the official file and are of the opinion that no interference is called for. It is open to the petitioners to prefer an appeal. In the event the petitioners request for cross-examination of concerned witnesses, same shall be granted by the CIT (Appeals), who shall consider all the arguments and pass a reasoned order dealing with each. In the event of appeal, the appeal shall be entertained without the requirement of pre-deposit.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of.

Order dasti.
