% 22.10.2018

After some hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions, sought permission to withdraw the petition seeking liberty to approach the trial court with an application for stay of the proceedings in the criminal complaint case instituted by the respondent Sandeep Grover till the decision in the civil case pending between the parties involving the issue of validity of the Will dated 29.10.2002 also requesting that the petitioner may be granted exemption from personal appearance till the decision is taken on such proposed application by the trial court.

The counsel for the respondent submits no objection.

The petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed for, granted. The application for stay of the criminal proceedings shall, of course, be decided by the trial court in accordance with law after hearing both parties. The petitioner will have the benefit of exemption from personal appearance till such application is decided by the trial court provided counsel on his behalf remains present without any default.
