ORDER

% 15.11.2018

1. These petitions seek relief from this Court in fixation of basic pay scale of the Petitioners at Rs.10,230/- + Rs.4,200/- Grade Pay instead of basic pay scale at Rs.9,300/- + Rs. 4,200/- Grade Pay.

2. Petitioner No.1 in W.P. (C) 10080 of 2018 joined the CRPF as Constable on 14th April 1983 and was later promoted as Head Constable, Sub-Inspector and is at present Inspector GD with the 99 Battalion RAF. Petitioner No.2 in W.P. (C) 10080 of 2018 joined the CRPF as Constable on 25th May 1983 as Constable and is also at present Inspector GD with the 99 Battalion RAF. The Petitioners in the companion petition, W.P. (C) 11626 of 2018, also began as Constables in the CRPF and are now Inspectors either with the CRPF or the 99 Battalion RAF. The issue common to both petitions arises as a result of the revision of pay scales pursuant to the 5th Pay Commission and later, the 6th Pay Commission.

3. The issue in these petitions is no longer res integra. It was first considered in Gajraj Singh v. Union of India [decision dated 6th September 2013 in W.P.(C) 4258/2013] and Suraj Bhan v. Union of India [decision dated 11th October 2013 in W.P.(C) 6550/2013]. Subsequently, in SI/GD Shambhu v. Union of India [decision dated 11th October 2017 in W.P.(C) 9359/2016], after referring to the earlier decisions, this Court interpreted Rules 5, 6, and 7 of the Central Civil Services (Revised Pay) Rules 2008 which came into retrospective effect on 1st January 2006 and allowed those writ petitions, issuing directions for refixing the pay scales as prayed for by those Petitioners.

4. The main objection in all these cases was that the Petitioners had not exercised their options but as noted by this Court in several decisions, they could not have exercised such options without their subsequent promotions being granted. As recently as January 2018, the Court again in another decision in and Jas Ram v. Union of India [decision dated 12th January 2018 in W.P.(C) 332/2017] again followed the earlier decisions and, in the case pertaining to Sub-Inspectors of the CRPF, directed the grant of benefit of 2nd financial upgradation in the ACP Scheme with all consequential benefits. A direction was issued to the Respondents to pass consequential orders after declaring that the Petitioners would be entitled to clause (i) appended Rules (7)(1)(A) of the 2008 Rules.

5. The issue was recently considered by this Court in its decision in Rajbir Singh v. Union of India [decision dated 12th November 2018 in W.P.(C) 9893/2018] and the following observations were made:

“6. The grievance in Shambhu (supra) was that, although the Respondents had correctly fixed the revised pay scale at Rs.10,230/- by using the multiplier of 1.86 to the existing basic pay as on 1st January 2006, subsequently they fixed at the minimum pay band of Rs.9,300/-. It was pointed out before this Court that the petitioners therein did not have to exercise their option under the proviso to Rule 5 on or before 31st March 2013 because the second financial upgradation benefit was given to them only in 2015.

7. The Court accepted the above plea and directed that those Petitioners would be restored to the pay scale of Rs.10,230/- plus grade pay of Rs.4,200/-.

8. The Court finds that the facts of the present case are no different. There is no reason why the present Petitioners should not be granted the same benefit that was granted to the petitioners in Shambhu (supra). Mr. Chibber points out that vis-a-vis the order dated 11th October 2017 in Shambhu (supra)

the contempt petition was filed in this Court and a statement has been made by the Respondents in those proceedings that they are implementing the decision of this Court in Shambhu (supra). Further, in the case of one Harkesh Tyagi who was a similarly placed petitioner in W.P.(C) 341/2017, it was noticed by the Court that the Respondents had already granted the benefit of exercising the option although he had been granted the second financial upgradation only in March 2015.”

6. The cases of all these Petitioners are the same. Following the aforementioned decisions, these petitions are allowed and a direction is issued to the Respondents to refix the basic pay of all the Petitioners at Rs.10,230/- + Rs.4,200/- Grade Pay from the date of completion of 24 years of service while granting the benefit of 2nd ACP to the Petitioners. The consequential order be passed within a period of 8 weeks from today. In case the payments including arrears are not made within the time stipulated, the Respondents shall additionally pay simple interest @ 9% per annum on the sum due to the Petitioners for the period of delay in making the payment.
