August, 2018. The application seeking parole on the ground mentioned was filed to the Competent Authority on 28th June, 2018 whereon the impugned communication dated 20th August, 2018 was passed informing the rejection thereof.

Considering the fact that after filing the application of parole the petitioner has already been granted furlough for a period of two weeks, this Court finds no ground to grant any parole to the petitioner at this stage.

Petition is dismissed.

Copy of this order be communicated to the petitioner through Central Jail, Tihar.
