HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A.K. PATHAK

Petitioners-Madhu and Geeta are sisters-in-law; whereas petitioner-Santosh is mother-in-law of complainant. There are specific allegations against them in the FIR. Complainant has specifically stated that petitioners came together along with her brother-in-law (jeth), namely, Ravinder Kumar and poured kerosene oil on her, however, she ran outside. There are other allegations of demand of dowry and harassment as well against the petitioners.

Learned APP points out that offence under Section 307 IPC has been added.

MLC of complainant has been produced and perused wherein doctor has mentioned about smell of kerosene oil in the clothes of the complainant. Keeping in mind these allegations, in my view, no case is made out to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

All the above-noted bail applications are dismissed.
