05.12.2018

1. After some arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the bail application, with liberty to move a fresh bail application before the Trial Court after completion of the prosecution evidence, as per law.

2. Accordingly, the bail application is dismissed as withdrawn, with liberty as prayed. It is clarified that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the bail application. The Trial Court shall make all endeavours to record the prosecution evidence, as expeditiously as possible.
