complainant is present in Court. His presence has been identified by the Investigating Officer. The settlement deed has been placed on record. It is a memorandum of understanding entered into between the parties detailing the terms of their settlement. The parties shall be bound by the terms and conditions stated in the aforementioned settlement which is marked Ex.PA. Parties having arrived at the aforementioned settlement, it is clear that no useful purpose would be served in continuing these proceedings as it would be an exercise in futility. Thus to secure the ends of justice, the FIR No.0076/2017 registered under Section 420 read with Section 34 of the IPC at Police Station Preet Vihar and all proceedings emanating therefrom stand quashed. Since the investigation has progressed to a large extent, the State has suffered a brunt on this. The submission of the learned Public Prosecutor that the petitioner must compensate the State with a cost is a submission which carries force. Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to pay a sum of ₹20,000/- to be deposited with the Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee.

Petitions disposed of in the above terms.
