Allegations have been made against the petitioner in case (FIR 158/17) of police station Hari Nagar constituting offences punishable under Sections 377, 506, 328 IPC and under Section 6 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012. The victim of the said offences is described as a boy aged 12 years, he having been subjected to unnatural sex (sodomy) by the petitioner, some intoxicating substance having been administered prior to the said act being committed. On the basis of the evidence that was collected during investigation, charge-sheet has already been filed in the competent court, the Special Judge having taken cognizance thereupon and having issued the process.

the petitioner concedes that charge has already been framed in the aforementioned offences, which order has not been challenged. This itself demonstrates sufficient evidence has been brought on record to prima facie show the complicity of the petitioner in the crimes.

In these circumstances, when the victim and prosecution witnesses are yet to be examined, there is no good ground to release him on bail.

Dismissed.
