2. Learned counsel for the petitioner states that in view of the subsequent developments whereunder, the respondents have themselves granted relief to the petitioner, which the Tribunal had declined under the impugned order dated 19.11.2016, no further orders are required to be passed in the present petition. He however requests that the impugned order may be quashed and set aside, just in case the respondents renege.
3. Issue notice.
4. Learned counsel for the respondents accepts notice and states on instructions that appropriate relief has been granted to the petitioner, which had been declined by the Tribunal.
5. In view of the aforesaid submission, the documents enclosed with the present application are taken on record. The impugned order dated 19.11.2016, passed in O.A. No. 4671/2014, is quashed and set aside.
6. The petition is disposed of along with the pending applications.
