Crl.M.A.No. 18821/2017

Status Report has been handed over which is taken on record. Medical papers of the petitioner have been verified as per which the petitioner is fit to join duties and report whenever required. Hence, this Court finds no ground to grant exemption from personal appearance to the petitioner.

Application is dismissed.

as per the report of the learned Trial Court, the trial is at the stage of arguments on charge and the delay is primarily for the reason that the petitioner has not been appearing or occasionally other accused have not been appearing. A perusal of the copies of order sheets of the learned Trial Court show that on almost all dates exemption from appearance of the petitioner is sought on the ground that he is not well.

Considering the facts noted above and the fact that presently the condition of the petitioner is not such that he is confined to bed or that he cannot move and that the delay if any, is due to the non-appearance of the petitioner or other accused, this Court finds no ground to pass any order in favour of the petitioner.

Petition is dismissed.
