18.12.2018

The petitioner is estranged from her husband for the past some months. She has three minor children and is living with them at her parents' home. She states that she has been mercilessly assaulted by her husband on various occasions and has been threatened by him and his relatives of dire consequences. She fears for her life, limb and liberty. She seeks protection of this Court against the husband and his relatives.

Ms. Kamna Vohra, the learned Additional Standing Counsel for the State submits that the matter has been looked into by the SHO of the area concerned and the parties have been sensitized to maintain peace. Additionally, the petitioner shall be provided with telephone numbers of three police officers from the jurisdiction of the concerned Police Station, of which one shall be of a lady police officer. These numbers shall be kept operational at all times so that any exigency can be intimated on either of the numbers by the petitioner. Ms. Vohra further states that any message received on the said numbers or on any other telephone number of the police either by way of a telephone call or SMS shall be immediately responded to. Additionally, the Beat Constable/Division Staff of the area shall regularly visit the residence of the petitioner on a daily basis and report the same in the Roznamcha. The safety and security of the petitioner shall be assessed by the SHO on a weekly basis with due endorsement of the same in the Roznamcha. The Beat Constable shall record entries in his Beat Book.

No further orders are required at this stage.

The petition stands disposed-off accordingly.

A copy of this order be given dasti to the learned counsel for the parties under the signature of the Court Master.
