ORDER
% 04.01.2018

Today learned counsel for the plaintiff has handed over a photocopy of the amended plaint. The same is taken on record.

Learned counsel for the defendants, on instructions of defendant no.2 who is personally present in Court, states that the defendants have no objection if the present suit is decreed in accordance with prayers (a) and (b) of the plaint. He further states that the moulds used by the defendants to manufacture the impugned products shall be handed over to the plaintiff within a period of four weeks along with the goods seized by the Local Commissioner. Upon instructions of defendant no.2, learned counsel for the defendants also agrees to pay Rs.50,000/- to the plaintiff within a period of four weeks.

Keeping in view the aforesaid statements, learned counsel for the plaintiff does not press for any further relief(s).

The statements made by learned counsel for the parties are accepted by this Court and the parties are held bound by the same.

Accordingly, the present suit is decree in accordance with the aforesaid statements as well as prayers (a) and (b) of the plaint. Registry is directed to prepare a decree sheet accordingly.

Registry is also directed to issue to the plaintiff a certificate authorizing it to receive back from the Collector the full amount of the Court fee paid by it in the present suit.
