ORAL ORDER

3 08-03-2019 This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail in connection with Complaint Case No. 1121 of 2017, disclosing offences under Sections 323, 379 and 498(A) of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of the D.P. Act.

Allegation against the petitioner is of subjecting his wife to cruelty and harassment with respect to demand of dowry.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that he is still ready to keep her with full dignity and care and the whole allegation is false and concocted.

Heard learned A.P.P. as well as learned counsel for the complainant, they have opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner stating that earlier also a case had been lodged by the complainant against the petitioner, which was compromised and again thereafter she was subjected to cruelty. However, she is still ready to live along with the petitioner, if he assure to keep her with full dignity and care.

Having heard both sides, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this application is disposed of with a direction to the petitioner to surrender before the court below on 04.04.2019 and file a petition that he is still ready to keep the opposite party no.2 with full dignity and care and on that date, the opposite party no.2 shall also remain present before the court below and on filing such an application, the court below shall release the petitioner on provisional bail for a period of six months to his own satisfaction and within that period, the learned court below will find the matrimonial status of the parties by calling them in the first week of each month and once the learned court below satisfied with the conduct of both the parties, he shall confirm the provisional bail of the petitioner otherwise, he is free to pass any order or orders as he deems fit and proper and including cancellation of bail bonds of the petitioner.

Accordingly, this application is disposed of.
