CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE CHAKRADHARI SHARAN SINGH

ORAL ORDER

2 25-02-2019 The petitioner is seeking removal of encroachment from a piece of land, which, according to him, belongs to him and has been encroached upon by the private respondent nos. 5 and 6.

There appears to be dispute as to who has the title and who is in lawful possession over the land, in question.

The petitioner's remedy lies either by way of filing a suit or by approaching the competent authority under Bihar Land Disputes Resolution Act, 2009.

The dispute of the nature, as emerging on the basis of the pleadings in the writ application, cannot be gone into in a proceeding under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

This application is disposed of with a liberty to the petitioner to take recourse of appropriate provisions of law, as he may lawfully advised.

(Chakradhari Sharan Singh, J.)
