The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case for the offence registered under Sections 341, 323, 376, 504 and 506 of the IPC in which cognizance has also been taken by the learned court below.

The prosecution story, in brief, is that the petitioner committed rape with the informant for three years continuously on the false pretext of marriage and on being asked for marriage, the petitioner started evading the same. Thereafter, the informant went at his house and attempted to talk with his family members but she was assaulted and forced to leave the house.

After investigation, the police has submitted final form as the case has been found to be false but the learned court below has differed with the said final form and taken cognizance against the petitioner.

On behalf of the learned counsel for the State, it has been submitted that the petitioner is named in the F.I.R/ complaint case.
