CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE CHAKRADHARI SHARAN SINGH

ORAL ORDER

2 25-01-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

This application for grant of anticipatory bail arises out of Araria (Bairgachhi) Police Station Case No. 495 of 2018, disclosing offence under Section 392 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the case of the prosecution, the accused persons snatched Rs. 1,68,750/- from the informant under the threat of life. The First Information Report was lodged against unknown. However, in course of investigation, one accused came to be arrested and who, while confessing his guilt, has disclosed the name of this petitioner.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent and that only on the basis of confessional statement of the co-accused, the petitioner cannot be successfully prosecuted.

Considering the nature of accusation and the fact that the petitioner's test identification parade may be required, I am not inclined to grant the petitioner privilege of anticipatory bail.

This application is, accordingly, dismissed.

The petitioner is directed to surrender before the Court below within four weeks from today and applies for regular bail, if so advised, and his application shall be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by the present order of dismissal.
