ORAL ORDER

3 21-02-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned

A.P.P.

The petitioner seeks anticipatory bail in connection with Nathnagar (Madhusudanpur) P.S.Case No. 385 of 2018, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 323, 341, 498 (A), 494, 504 and 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation as per F.I.R. against the petitioner is that the petitioner, who happens to be the husband of the complainant that the petitioner again married with another lady and assaulted the informant with lathi and danda, causing injury.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case and inspite of several request made by the petitioner, the complainant did not come to the house of the petitioner, as such petitioner re-married with another lady and allegation of throwing the daughter in a drain, was saved by the villagers is false and concocted as no injury was found on the person of daughter of the informant.

Learned A.P.P. as well as learned counsel for the informant opposes the prayer for bail and stated that the petitioner had married with another lady and impugned order discloses that the complainant is not ready to live with the petitioner stating that he is very bad person.

Having heard both sides and in view of the facts and circumstances, as discussed above, let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of six weeks from the date of the order, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 25,000/- (Twenty five thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each in connection with Nathnagar (Madhusudanpur) P.S.Case No. 385 of 2018 corresponding to G.R.
