CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

4 25-04-2019 This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Complaint Case No. 374(C)/2018, disclosing offences under Section 498A and 406/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3/4
of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

Petitioner happens to be husband of the complainant and allegation against him is of subjecting the complainant to cruelty in connection with demand of dowry of Rs. Eight Lakhs and four katha of land and ousted her from the house.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that all the allegations are false and concocted and he is still ready to keep the informant with full honour and dignity and he is ready to take the complainant from the court itself.

Heard learned A.P.P. as well as learned counsel for the complainant that she is also ready to live with the petitioner if she is kept with full honour and dignity.

Having heard both sides, considering the fact that there is chance of restoration of conjugal life of the parties, this application is disposed of with direction to the petitioner and the complainant to appear before the concerned court below on 09.05.2019 and if the petitioner files a petition that he is ready to keep the complainant with himself with full honour and dignity and if he is willing to take the complainant with himself from the court itself, the court below shall release the petitioner on provisional bail for a period of six months to his own satisfaction and in the meantime, the court below will watch the conduct of the parties by calling them in the first week of each month for a period of six months and after six months, if the court below is satisfied with the conduct of the petitioner as well as the matrimonial life of the parties, he will confirm the provisional bail of the petitioner otherwise, he is free to pass any order including the order of cancellation of provisional bail of the petitioner.

With the above observation, this application is disposed of.
