CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 28-03-2019 Mr. Sunil Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner, after some arguments, seeks permission to withdraw this petition in order to enable the petitioner to ventilate her grievance by way of complaint/representation before the District Programme Officer, Samastipur (respondent No. 6)

within a period of four weeks from today.

It may be noted here that even though the petitioner was placed at serial No. 1 in the merit list, her claim was bypassed and private respondent No. 9 was appointed on the post of Anganbari Sevika. The reason for her claim being bypassed is that the educational certificates of the petitioner are not from a recognized institution and the claim of the candidate at serial No. 2 in the merit list has been rejected because of her not hailing from the concerned area for her to be considered for the said post.

The District Programme Officer, Samastipur (respondent No. 6), therefore, is directed to look into all aspects of the matter, afford hearing to all the stake holders including the private respondent No. 9, who has been appointed on the post of Anganbari Sevika and if possible, the candidate at serial No. 2 and pass orders in accordance with law within a period of six weeks thereafter.

The petition is dismissed as withdrawn with the observation/direction aforesaid.

(Ashutosh Kumar, J)
