ORAL ORDER

3 07-05-2019 This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Khaira P.S. Case No. 102/2017, disclosing offences under Sections 341, 323, 324, 307, 504/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 302/201 of Indian Penal Code was added.

Petitioner no. 1 is the husband of the deceased and other petitioners are family members of petitioner no. 1 and allegation against them is of setting the deceased on fire, due to which, she sustained burn injuries and succumbed to her injuries.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioners is that petitioners have falsely been implicated in this case and in fact the deceased had committed suicide and after supervision the case was found true under Section 306/201 of the Indian Penal Code .

Learned counsel for the State opposed the prayer for bail and submitted as the petitioner no. 1 was having illicit relationship with another lady due to which the occurrence took place.

Having heard both sides, considering the facts and circumstances so far petitioner no. 1 is concerned, I am not inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail rather he should surrender before the court below and make prayer for regular bail, which will be considered by the court below on the merit of the case.

So far other petitioners are concerned, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the court below within six weeks, they are directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty five Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jamui, in connection with Khaira P.S. Case No. 102/2017, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

With the above observation and direction this application stand disposed of.
