The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Rahui (Wena) P.S.Case no.391 of 2018 registered for offences punishable under Sections 272, 273, 290 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 30(a)(c)(d)/33/36 of the Bihar Prohibition and Excise Act, 2016.

Allegation against the petitioner that the police recovered one Scorpio vehicle and raided the house of the petitioner and several articles of manufacturing liquor have been recovered and apart from that 10 ltrs. of liquor were also recovered and from the Scorpio Vehicle, 440 ltrs. of liquor have been recovered.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the Scorpio vehicle does not belong to the petitioner and Heard learned A.P.P. also.

Having heard both sides and in view of allegation of manufacturing of liquor, apart from that the fact that he is accused in three other cases though not of similar type, I am not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner rather let the petitioner surrender before the learned court below within a period of six weeks from the date of order and make prayer for regular bail, which will be considered by the learned court below without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
